"God make this house of worship we have raised to Thee wide enough to receive all who need human love, fellowship and the Father's care and narrow enough to shut out envy, pride and hate. Make its threshold smooth that it may be no stumbling block to childhood weakness or straying feet, but rugged and strong enough to turn back the tempter's power. God make this house of worship the gateway to Thy eternal Kingdom."

A - las! And did my Savior bleed? And did my Sov-’reign die? Would He devote that sa - cred head For sinner such as I? Refrain: At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light, And the bur-den of my heart rolled away. It was there by faith I re-ceived my sight, And now I am happy all the day!

Was it for crimes that I have done He groaned up-on the tree? A-mazing pit-y! grace un-known! And love be-yond de-gree! Refrain: At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light, And the bur-den of my heart rolled away. It was there by faith I re-ceived my sight, And now I am happy all the day!

But drops of grief can ne’er re-pay The debt of love I owe. Here, Lord, I give my-self a-way; Tis all that I can do. Refrain: At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light, And the bur-den of my heart rolled away. Text: “And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad? And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days? And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further. But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them. And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.” Luke 24:13-18, 28-31
