For Christ will last!

"God make this house of worship we have raised to Thee wide enough to receive all who need human love, fellowship and the Father's care and narrow enough to shut out envy, pride and hate. Make its threshold smooth that it may be no stumbling block to childhood weakness or straying feet, but rugged and strong enough to turn back the tempter's power. God make this house of worship the gateway to Thy eternal Kingdom."

*The Opening Hymn of Praise

“Battle Hymn of the Republic”

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord, He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible, swift sword; His truth is marching on. Refrain: Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps; They have build-ed Him an altar in the evening dews and damps; I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps. His day is marching on. Refrain:

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea, with a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me; As He died to make men holy let us live to make men free, While God is marching on. Refrain:

*The Responsive Reading

Joel 2:27-30, 32

Rev. Angela Jackson

Minister: And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions

People: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call.

And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people; And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest,) That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho. And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.” Joshua 3:1, 14-17

REV. EUNICE WILLIAMS

LIFE: Eunice Idell Williams was born in South Hill, Virginia. In her early teenage years, she moved to Chicago, Illinois and attended high school there. After attending the Cook County School of Nursing for 18 months, she moved to Washington, D.C. at the age of 24 and began a career working for the Department of Defense at Walter Reed Army Medical Center. After meeting and marrying her husband, Nicholas, she traveled with him on his US Army assignments to El Paso, Texas, Hawaii and San Antonio, Texas and continued her employment with the federal government.

MINISTRY AND CHURCH AFFILIATION: Rev. Williams was raised up in the church but feels very strongly that she did not establish a personal relationship with Christ until much later in life. In the very early portion of 2001, Minister Williams heard and heeded the call by God for her to proclaim the Gospel. She preached her initial sermon and received her license to preach the gospel in October of 2001. She was ordained in October 2003 after 18 months of intensive study for the ordination examination. Rev Williams and her husband have been actively involved as a Sunday School teacher and a preacher of God's Good News.

Rev. Williams and her husband were members of Best Grove Missionary Baptist Church, Goldsboro, North Carolina from 2000 to 2006. In 2005, she became a member of the local interdenominational nonprofit organization; Clergy Living in Faith and Fellowship (CLIFF). In 2006 CLIFF selected Rev. Williams to present one of the homiletic messages during the month of Lent. During her tenure at Best Grove Missionary Baptist Church, Rev. Williams was also involved with the BGMBC organization known as Women of Faith and Fellowship (WOFF). She was actively involved in Sunday school. Along with the Sunday School superintendent, she began a program to maintain contact with the church's young adult members as they attended various colleges and universities throughout the state of North Carolina. Pastor Jackson counted on her to assist him with organizing quarterly new membership training. She was responsible for contacting each new member and preparing study materials for them. She and one other associate minister accompanied Pastor Jackson with visiting the sick and shut in church members. Rev. Williams attended several state-wide (North Carolina) Baptist conventions. She attended the Women's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention and the North Carolina General Baptist Convention's mid-year session.

She sees her ministry as being one outside of the church, reaching out to those less fortunate and the incarcerated population. While living in San Antonio from 1988 to 2000, she eagerly helped with her church's homeless feeding program and nursing home visitation program.

MARRIAGE: In 1977, Reverend Williams met her husband, Reverend Nicholas W. Williams when he was assigned to Walter Reed Army Medical Center. They have been together since 1977 and married since 1980. Rev. Williams and her husband have two sons, David and Todd.

EDUCATION: Reverend Williams attended Mount Olive College for a period of time where she took courses in New Testament and Old Testament studies and Christian Education. She has an earnest desire to continue studying theological topics that will enhance her capabilities to carry out the duties that God has ordained her for.
